Foreign Intelligence.

Received at Boston, by the arrival of the Argo, from Hamburg.

HAGUE, October 5.

The tranquility which continued for 12 days, has at length been interrupted, on the 2d inst. by one of the most violent attacks, which the English made on our left wing and centre. The battle lasted the whole day, and both parties fought with the greatest obstinacy. Night put a stop to the carnage; but on the 3d it was renewed with increased violence, till at last our left wing and centre were forced to give way to the enemy's superiority. We were obliged to give up all our positions before Alkmaar, and even that town to the enemy: Gen. Brune's head quarters were removed to Beverwyk. Our army was forced to take another position; our advanced posts, however, still occupy Bauum, Castricum, and Limmen.

During the action the fine village of Koedyk, about a mile and an half from Alkmaar, was burnt down. Some prisoners have been conveyed to Haerlem and Amsterdam; at the former place about 40 or 50 vessels, with wounded, have arrived. The French gen. La Maison, and the chief of Brigade Mercier, are amongst the latter.

Yesterday the President of the third Chamber informed the Assembly, that no particulars of the action of the 2d had been received, but Gen. Brune's head quarters had been removed to Beverwyk.

The villages of Genemuicien and Zwartsluis, were also occupied by the English sailors, who took possession of them in the name of the Prince of Orange, and hoisted the Orange flag; but they have been driven from thence, and mostly made prisoners

To provide the army as speedily and as cheap as possible with great coats, our first chamber has proposed that every Municipal officer, whose salary exceeds two thousand florins, and every citizen who has more than two servants, shall furnish a military great coat.

From Alkmaar, Oct. 3. 12 at noon.

Yesterday morning between six and seven o'clock, the enemy made one of the most violent attacks upon our left wing and centre. Our troops defended themselves bravely, but were at length forced to give way to the enemy's superiority, but not before they had done great mischief to them. The enemy stormed our positions several times, but were repulsed in each attack.—The fire was dreadful on both sides and several houses were burnt down. The enemy advanced against our left wing as far as Bergen; the most furious conflict enfued, and they were driven back with the loss of some prisoners. Our left wing and centre advanced again, and the artillery kept up an uninterrupted fire, with the best success. Night terminated the bloody conflict, or rather afforded an opportunity to recover strength to renew the battle by the dawn of day. It actually re commenced on the morning of the 3d, at day-break; both parties fought with unexampled fury, and every inch of ground was contested. The enemy renewed the attack, at different times, with fresh troops, and victory remained doubtful, till at length our troops became exhausted with fatigue, and began their retreat, which was general, and was effected fighting, and in the greatest order. All our magazines, hospitals, baggage, infantry and cavalry, retreated through Alkmaar to Beverwyk; and the army will take a new position, which can be defended better.—Several villages are seen in flames, which seem to rage mostly at St. Pancras and Longondyk. The enemy has bought his victory very dear; and however great our loss may be, his can hardly be less, our artillery, which was well supplied, having made great havoc among them.

Extract of a letter from Gen. Daendels.

Head-quarters, Beverwyk.

I have been constantly with the advanced posts and had not time to write sooner.

Our posts were attacked on the 2d, early in the morning; the right wing maintained its position, but the centre and left wing suffered severely, and have retreated, which obliged my right wing to fall back also, for fear of being cut off.

The conflict was desperate, and the French have lost a great number of men.—The train and our baggage are here—the reinforcements of the French advance—I hope for the best.

I have been on the batteries for a considerable time, when a croud of balls whistled around me, one of which pierced my hat, without any farther hurt. I am not yet able to communicate further particulars. Keep up your spirits—We shall conquer or die.

Yesterday our Municipality received the following letter from the French General Marlot:

"Citizen—I have this moment received official intelligence from the Chief of the General Staff, that the head quarters of our army have been removed to Beverwyk, and that numerous reinforcements are expected, which will soon enable us to act again on the offensive. The position which we now occupy is one of the most favorable. I am desired to assure you that the general in chief will do every thing for the safety of Amsterdam. On my part, I shall omit nothing to maintain the tranquility of this important city. You will take proper measures that nothing is sent from here to North Holland, and that no vessels sail for that quarter, excepting to the places occupied by gen. Daendals, viz. Purmerent, Moykendam, and Edam.

(Signed) MARLOT."

Our army continues to receive reinforcements, and more are still expected. Three thousand French troops marched yesterday through Haarlem, for the army. Bodies of arm edcitizens are joining it daily, and when all shall have arrived, we hope that Fortune, which deserted us in the last battle, will favor us again.

AMSTERDAM, October 1.

We are expecting with the utmost anxiety Intelligence from Friesland, the whole of which province seems to be threatened by the enemy. The town of Lemmer, whose harbor is of such importance for our inland trade, is said to have surrendered after having suffered some time a heavy cannonade from the English gun boats—If the enemy once get a footing in Friesland, where there are no sufficient means of defence against a formidable force, the consequences must be fatal, as we are but too well acquainted with the destructive system of the English . . .

HOORN, September 29.

They write from Alkmaar that the inundation of the Heer-Hugo Waard is effected, so that a district of four thousand acres of land is under water.

UTRECHT, October 1.

The day before yesterday the Russian General Hermann with his two aides-de-camp and servants, arrived here, and yesterday morning they set off, under an escort, for Paris.

BREGENZ, September 17.

"On the 23d, in the morning, General Hotze was informed, that the French had crossed the Linth; but as he did not fear a serious attack, nor conceived the danger to be so great as it really was, he mounted his horse, accompanied by some hussars, Col. Plunket, the Lieut. Col. of the hussars of the frontiers, and some Adjutants, at six in the morning, and proceeded to the advanced post between Schannis and Kaltenbrunn to reconnoitre. Suddenly they saw themselves surrounded by the enemy, who fired upon them small arms. A corporal, who was present, and who was so fortunate to cut his way through, says, that he had seen General Hotze fall from his horse, and that he was found dead in a ditch the day following; that Col. Plunket, and the Col. of the frontier hussars, had also been killed. The enemy afterwards made a violent attack, carried the bridge at Grunau, where they took post. At nine o'clock, three battalions of Russians, under the command of the Prince of Wirtemberg, arrived from Rapperschwyl, who stormed the bridge from Grunau to Ulznoch, without firing a shot. But the enemy, reinforced by fresh troops, renewed the attack, and forced the Russians, by a heavy grape-shot fire, to quit that post again, on which occasion, besides the privates, a Col. a Lieut. Col. and 12 officers were killed, and a Russian General wounded. Should no succors arrive from Zurich, General Hotze's column will be forced to retreat to the Rhine.

"Afternoon.—The unfortunate death of General Hotze seems actually to have been followed by a general retreat. Fieldmarshal-Lieut. de Gruber is arrived here this moment with the war-chancelry and treasury. The militia, in Vorarlberg has been ordered to assemble, and to march immediately, to occupy the frontiers on the Rhine.

"Six in the evening.—The Russians have also been defeated near Zurich, and forced to retreat. Zurich is again occupied by the French. This afternoon the head-quarters of our troops were still at St. Gall, and the troops at the distance of a mile and a half. As they are not in sufficient force, it is feared they will be obliged to retreat across the Rhine.

FELDKIRCH, September 26.

"On the 23d Fieldmarshal Suwarrow commenced his operations against Switzerland, from the side of Italy: he has taken possession of Airolo, and on the following day he carried mount St. Gothard. Gen. Rosenberg is advancing through the valley of Levin, against the Grison country, to dislodge the enemy from their position at Urseren, while Gen. Aussenberg is advancing through the valley of Maderan, to join the other columns, and Gen. Jellachich will attack the enemy near Millehorn, to take possession of the canton of Glarus. Accounts received to-day, state, that the Russian Gen. Rosenberg, with his corps, has actually reached the frontiers of the Grison country, and made already 500 of the French advanced posts prisoners. Gen. Aussenberg has made himself master of the mountain called Kreuzberg, and thus surmounted the greatest obstacle. Gen. Jellachich attacked and routed the enemy yesterday morning near Mellehorn, and was already at six in the morning master of Mollis. Fresh accounts of the further proceedings of the united Austro-Russians, are expected every moment."

From the above two letters it appears, that both parties attacked at one time, after different plans, and in different points, and the attacks of both were crowned by victory. But the importance of these successes can only be calculated from their consequence. Should the French intend to follow up their victory, by advancing towards the Rhine and the lake of Constance, they will leave Gens. Suwarrow, Rosenberg, Aussenberg, and Jellachich in their rear, and before these are defeated, they cannot derive the expected advantages from their victory; but the Russian and Austrian generals just mentioned will be enabled to follow up their successes much as possible, their rear being perfectly secured, and it cannot be doubted, that they will soon fall upon the advanced enemy's rear. Considering all these circumstances, the situation of both armies is extremely critical, and our next letters from the lake of Constance, may most likely determine to whose advantage this crisis has contributed.

HANAU, October 4.

We are this instant informed that the battle in Switzerland has terminated in favor of the Russians and Austrians. Our accounts say, that Suwarrow arrived just in time by way of Mount St. Gothard, attacked the left wing of the French in the rear, defeated them, and thus the allies proved victorious in the end. Gen. Massena is said to have been wounded, and taken prisoner, on this occasion.

The Gen. of Brigade, Rostollant, Chief of the Staff, to the Minister of War

Head-quarters, Beverwick, Oct. 3.

The great affairs of yesterday prevented me from writing to you. Our left wing and a part of the centre was attacked at 7 o'clock in the morning, by the enemy's forces, which were double ours. Our columns however maintained their positions all day. The great superiority of the enemy allowed them to advance a great part of their army along the shore, protected by the fire of their vessels near D'Egmond ap zee. We remained in possession of this position and of that of Bergen till night overtook us. This morning the General in Chief, who foresaw a new attack, thought not proper to wait with fatigued troops, a stronger enemy. He, in consequence, ordered a retreat, which was made in the greatest order. The troops are this moment arrived in their new positions, and there is no attack to fear.

The camp of Beverwick, which is very concentrated and favorable, will put us in a state to attack as soon as our reinforcements are arrived.

The division of general Daendels, which maintained itself in its position during the combat, made its retreat by Purmerendo and Monnikendam, from whence it covers Amsterdam, and takes from us all inquietude for that side.

The enemy must have suffered extremely in the engagement of yesterday. We have made more than one hundred prisoners, among which are three officers. The generals of division having not yet been able to give me an account, I am obliged to delay making you a more circumstantial report.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be registered and located,—the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locaters.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that we are at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traversed that tract: he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as Locaters, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory.

Juſtum et tenacem propoſiti virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus inſtantis tyranni,

The appeal of Sir Sidney Smith to Egyptian diſcrimination, in favor of an Engliſh and Chriſtian Knight againſt an Infidel and a Frenchman, recals to mind thoſe golden days, "now to the duſt gone down," when Democracy and temporizing cowardice were not to truth and honor paramount. The appeal was touching; and though the appellee was neither independent, nor exceſſively enlightened, nor was probably ſuffocated with dignity; yet he had an heart to feel, and it felt for Sir Sidney, whoſe appeal having once reached it, excites no calculations, nor any thing, but his ſword from its ſcabbard. Waving his gleaming blade high in air, he advanced to the enemy, ſhouting "Sir Sidney, the Chriſtian Knight and victory."

We could hardly conceive that the French commander in Switzerland, would have committed the ſtupid error of remaining in his poſition before Zurich; and we predicted, that, if, by any infatuation, he ſhould do ſo, the conſequences would be ruinous to him. His obſtinacy has accordingly eventuated in placing his army between two fires, and himſelf, wounded, into the hands of the enemy.

A poet, of great ſweetneſs and merit, who ſtiles himſelf "Peter Pencil" has publiſhed in John Ruſſell's Boſton Gazette a beautiful little poem, under the title of an elegy, ſuppoſed to be written by himſelf during his decline. This plan gives him an opportunity feelingly to deſcribe the miſeries of a man of genius, when unfortunately ſituated in a new country and compelled to ſtruggle againſt the overwhelming tide of commercial avarice, and ſtockjobbing ſtupidity. The penſive bard formally takes an affectionate leave of thoſe dear girls, The Muſes. In one couplet he tells the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, but pays a wretched compliment to his dear native county.

"Thy country's voice declares thy hapleſs doom;
Gives cheerleſs penury for the painter's lot,
And dark oblivion for the poet's tomb.

The celebrated Lady Wallace has the management of an Engliſh preſs at Hamburg, and actually conducts a political Journal. Madame Roland uſed to aſſiſt her huſband in drafting diſpatches, but we think the Caledonian Dame, above referred to, is the firſt newſpaper Editreſs on record.

ANECDOTE.

Burke was no leſs conſpicuous for claſſical wit than for political ſkill. One day, after dinner, the Prince of Wales about to propoſe a bumper toaſt, aſked, Burke if a toaſt-maſter was not abſolute? He inſtantly anſwered, yes, Sir, JURE DE VINO.

It is ſingular circumſtance in the life of the admirable Edmund Burke that his firſt literary eſſay was the expoſure of a ſeditious demagogue. In the year 1749, one Lucas, a demagogue apothecary, wrote a number of very leveling papers againſt government, and acquired as great popularity at Dublin, as Wilkes afterwards did in London. Burke perceived the noxious tendency of levelling doctrines. He wrote ſeveral eſſays in the ſtyle of Lucas, imitating it ſo completely, as to deceive the public;—purſuing Lucas's principles to their obvious conſequences, and, at the ſame time, ſhewing their abſurity and danger. The firſt literary effort, therefore, of a mighty mind, of that accurate and preſcient politician, Edmund Burke, a man of the longeſt views, the pureſt principles, and of ancient virtue, was AN EXPOSURE OF THE ABSURDITY OF DEMOCRATIC INNOVATIONS.

There are three political ſects in the United States. The firſt in number, as well as in ſenſe and merit, are the Federaliſts, who believe that mankind are in need of all the reſtraints of good government, and would be devils without it.

The ſecond are the Jacobins, who ſee, in every book of acts and reſolves, gibbits, pillories, and jails. The lean horſes that are ſtarving in the road, would naturally wiſh to ſee the downfall of all the fences round the clover fields. The laws fence out the jacobin rogues from treſpaſs and ſpoil. They ſee other men enjoy they own with juſt as much good will as cattle in a pound would look through the rails at other cattle feeding in a paſture. Jacobiniſm is of courſe as inevitable in a ſtate, as lazineſs and want.

But there is a third ſect who are leſs deſpiſed, and yet are more contemptible. Theſe are the Illuminiſts.* They will have it that government is unneceſſary, or at leaſt that its moſt ſalutary reſtraints are ſo. All the people want, they ſay, is information. They would talk down whiſky poles, and cut down whipping poſts and gallowſes.

The Federaliſts, like the great body of every nation, want liberty, and tranquillity in the enjoyment of it.

The Jacobins really want, though they deny it, power, plunder, and vengeange.

The Illuminiſts* want common ſenſe to ſuch a degree that they do not know their want of it; for, if they had a ray of its light, they would ſee that they are underworkers to the Jacobins.

The ſchr. Enterprize, Lieut. John Shaw, commander, of 12 ſixes and 2 nines, and 79 men, is to ſail from Baltimore, for the windward ſtation.

Extract of a Letter from Lancaſter, Dec. 6.

"I am ſorry to have to inform you, that our ſtrength in the Houſe of Repreſentatives, is 37; that of the antiefederaliſts, 38—abſent one of each party. The weak hope of the Federaliſts is, that when the preſent Governor takes his ſeat, his apoſtacy from thoſe who have ruled him nine years will enable them to tie their opponents. The Federal cauſe has been outvoted on every queſtion that has yet been taken; and the Anti-federal ſide, to crown his infamy of their career, have choſen Iſaac Weaver of Greene County, their Speaker."

Miffin delivered on Saturday his Speech to his Bareboues Parliament. Like the Scenic and other productions of Archer, it is verboſe, turgid, and dull. It thus concludes:

And, now, my Friends and Fellow Citizens, I bid you, from this ſtation, a laſt, and an affectionate farewell. I acknowledge, with heart felt gratitude, the public kindneſs, confidence, and ſupport, which I have uninterruptedly enjoyed for the greater portion of an active and anxious life. I ſhall forever reflect, with pride and pleaſure, upon the candor and liberality, which I have experienced in my intercourſe with the ſucceſſive Legiſlatures, that have been convened during the Conſtitutional term of my adminiſtration. As the proof of my ſenſe of ſuch obligations, I have endeavered to execute an arduous office with diligence and fidelity: And while, ſurrendering the taſk to an able and upright ſucceſſor, I implore for him, for you and for my country, the guidance and bleſſing of an all-wiſe, and all-powerful Providence.

Mr. Woods is choſen Speaker and Mr. Matlack, Clerk of the Senate; Mr. Bullock is unanimouſly choſen Clerk of the Houſe of Repreſentatives.

BOSTON, December 3.

Captain Howland ſailed from Hamburg, Oct. 13. On the evening of the 11th he was informed of the receipt of news of a defeat, experienced by the Engliſh in Holland; but we imagine it a mere report, as we have a paper of October 12, and that is ſilent as to ſuch an event.

The new poſitions of the Gallo-Batavian forces, are within three or four hours march of Amſterdam, taking a ſtrait line. They have retreated about half the diſtance from Pancras, (their laſt head quarters, advance of Alkmaer) towards Amſterdam. [ib.

The Hamburg paper of Oct. 10, ſtates, beſides the news we have already copied, that the allies had taken Genoa, after defeating the French there, who are ſaid to have loſt 6 or 7000 —That "an expreſs is ſaid to have arrived laſt night (Oct. 9) with news of the total defeat of Maſſena's army and the re taking of Zurich;" That their Sardinian Majeſties arrived at Legh horn, Sept. 22, on their way to their ancient reſidence. [ib.

Relative to the armies, the paper of Oct. 12, mentions, that the Auſtrians have taken Pignerol, by aſſault, which is about twenty-four miles SW. of Turin; and was by the laſt accounts poſſeſſed by a part of Championet's army; that Maſſena poſſeſſed Zurith and had re-organized the Republican Municipality, and that he had ſurrendered the body of Hotze to the Imperialiſts who, had buried it with military honour.—There are, beſides, minute accounts of poſitions, changes made or contemplated, &c. which the crowded ſtate of our paper prevents inſertion. [ib.

The French Council of Elders have negatived the reſolution for depriving the Directory of the power to introduce troops within the conſtitutional limits. [ib.

The Engliſh government has received a late letter from Sir S. Smith, with a detailed account of a field action he had had with the French in Egypt, which ended in their defeat. Moſt of their officers were taken priſoners, and Buonaparte himſelf narrowly eſcaped. The date of the letter is not mentioned; but it was received Sept. 26, and undoubtedly relates to an engagement, of which we have not before heard. [ib.

An article dated at Conſtantinople, Auguſt 24, ſtates, that the French had totally defeated Kioſſe Muſtapha Pacha, near Aboukir, and afterwards re took Aboukir; but few of 6000 Turks eſcaped, even the Pacha being taken priſoner. Reinforcements of Turks were ſlowly moving towards Egypt. It remains to be aſcertained whether this news of Sir S. Smith's is the lateſt. We do not here find the date of the action. [ib

In conſequence of the application of the American Miniſter at the Spaniſh Court, orders have been iſſued, countermanding former directions, and allowed the Cargoes of American veſſels to paſs through their Cuſtom houſes, although not furniſhed with Conſuls Certificates, from whence they proceed. The Court appoint the firſt day of next term, to hear the petitioner and his creditors, and order that he give his creditors public notice hereof, in Fenno's Philadelphia paper, and in Yeates and Brown's Baltimore paper, for one week, ending at leaſt four weeks before the day of hearing; and that he ſo give to John Gilleſpie and Jacob Everhart perſonal notice in writing, to be ſerved on them, at leaſt fifteen days previous to the hearing. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

ON Thurſday, 22d October, deſerted from the encampment, near Briſtol, Pennſylvania, HENRY WEST, an enliſted Muſician, belonging to the company of Captain Matthew Henry of the tenth regiment of United States Infantry. He was 26 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, grey eyes, fair complexion, born in the county of Tyrone, Ireland, he is a little ſtoop ſhouldered and ſpeaks in a low tone of voice.

ALSO,

Deſerted from the company of captain Hugh Brady, on Saturday, 26th October, four privates, JOHN DENNIS, aged 34, 5 feet 8 inches high, born in New York, grey eyes, brown hair, brown complexion, was much addicted to liquor, and when intoxicated very talkative. SOLOMON SMITH, aged 37, 5 feet 7 inches high, born in New-York, grey eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, a notorious offender, this being his third deſertion. SIMEON DUN, aged 21 years, and 6 months, 5 feet 5 inches high, born in New-Jerſey, grey eyes, fair hair, brown complexion.

CHARLES McLEY, aged 26, 5 feet 6 inches high, born in Ireland, grey eyes, black hair, dark complexion—he is ſuppoſed to be in Norriſtown, or its neighbourhood—it is not known what clothing they had when they deſerted; but the probability is that they have changed their military habits.

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY-THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and dependencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples neceſſarily previous to calculating a Survey ſucceeded by ſeven ſurveys, the area of the four firſt is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, ſhewing how to take an inacceſſible boundary, find the bearing and diſtance of the cloſing line without running it, alſo the diſtances to an inacceſſible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offſets on to winding ſtreams of water, ſhewing how to aſcertain the area without the trouble of meaſuring the windings with chains and inſtruments—a crooked water courſe ſtraitened, and a quantity of land on each ſide found by theſe offſets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many ſub-diviſions, leading into the moſt critical circumſtances that can occur in practice; an example of interſections, and an example ſhewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every ſtation; examples ſhewing the method of meaſuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders ſent to Joſeph and James Cruckſhank, Bookſellers, No. 87. High-ſtreet, Philadelphia, Bonſall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subſcriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now firſt permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in ſize, paper, and binding, will be obſerved throughout the work; ſo that, while the ſubſcribers become poſſeſſed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to ſubſcribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publiſher does not intend to print manmore than the number ſubſcribed for, a conſiderable riſe on the price may be expected to non-ſubſcribers.

Each volume will contain about one third leſs of letter-preſs than the original edition; but, as the publiſher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot aſcertain the number of volumes which will compriſe the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſsneſs, in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in thoſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt inеſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhew the ſupport it has already acquired:

"Reſpectfully ſheweth,

"That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies, that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the ſhort and pleaſant road of Buſſleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populouſneſs of the country through which it paſſes, with ſundry other advantages, which render it ſo far preferable to the Old Road through Briſtol, Brunſwick, &c. long ago ſuggeſted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the preſent year, a minute ſurvey of it has been taken, and its ſuperiority over the Old Road, both in winter and ſummer, has been clearly aſcertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croſſing is performed with great ſafety and in leſs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is ſeveral miles ſhorter than the old road, but this is amongſt the leaſt of its advantages, becauſe daily experience proves to us, that diſpatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodneſs of the road and the levelneſs of the country, and, in theſe reſpects, the New Road is, beyond all compariſon, the beſt. It preſents none of thoſe rocky hills, which render the Old Road ſo fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The ſoil, too, for the greater part, is ſuch as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little duſt in ſummer, which circumſtance, added to the beauty of the country, and a conſiderable proportion of ſhade, muſt always render travelling in the latter ſeaſon peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure ſtarts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, oppoſite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth ſtreet. It goes through Frankford to Buſſleton, where it ſtops to Breakfaſt; from Buſſletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Milliſtone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it ſtops at Springfield to breakfaſt, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it ſtarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For ſeats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee houſe, to A. Mathieu, corner of Naſſau and John ſtreets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich ſtreet, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad ſtreet.

Fare for paſſengers, Five Dollars.
Way paſſengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each paſſenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paſſenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With reſpect to packages ſent on without paſſengers, the proprietors preſume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of ſtages, they think muſt meet with general approbation. They pledge themſelves to make good every package on the following conditions. The perſon who delivers the package at the office ſhall ſee it entered in the ſtage-book, for which entry he ſhall pay 6 cents; he will then ſtate the value of the package, and pay (excluſive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as inſurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for inſtance, if he eſtimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar inſurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perſons it is preſumed, will diſlike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himſelf of this ſecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to ſtate very explicitly, that they will be reſponſible for the ſafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an inſurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diſtribution of the route, the greateſt care has bren taken to fix on ſuch places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the paſſengers at the moſt reaſonable rates. The ſtages are well equipped furniſhed with fleet and ſteady horſes, and committed to the care of intelligent ſober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themſelves live at the different towns and villages where the ſtages will ſtop, ſo that the conduct of the perſons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care alſo to ſee that the paſſengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no ſort of chicanery or inſolence is practiſed upon them; in ſhort, they have ſpared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very beſt line of ſtages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paſſenger has found the road to ſurpaſs very far all that has been ſaid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns ſpoken of with the higheſt ſatisfaction.
